The 1958 Mesa

Student

Happiness

FREDERICKSBURG HIGH SCHOOL

FREDERICKSBURG, TEXAS

Foreword

The 1958 edition of The Mesa has been published with one objective: to capture a year of Student Happiness between its covers. While we know that life at Frederickburg High School is a multitude of realities which are too intangible to be related in black and white, perhaps in some small way we can preserve the friendships which we all hold so dearly. If this book will serve to bridge the past and bring to mind the priceless memories of joy and pleasures of the year just gone, it will have served its purpose.

With these thoughts, we proudly present to you, the students, your 1958 Mesa.

THE MESA STAFF

FREDERICKSBURG SCHOOL

As the bell rings on that first day of school, many happy students pour once again into the building. From that moment on until school closes, the students in their classes, at their games, and in their daily lives make FHS. The faculty adds much to STUDENT HAPPINESS.

Administration and

Faculty

School Board and Office Personnel

SEATED are the School Board officers, Tyrus Cox, vice-president; Max Schneider, president; and Arthur Kowert, secretary-treasurer. STANDING are members W. H. Osbourn, H. J. Schmidt, Edgar H. Dietz, and Victor Nixon. This board has done much to make Student Happiness possible.

Peeking into the files are Mrs. Vera Kneese, secretary to superintendent, and Mrs. Ruby Burgess, secretary.

Office girls help Mrs. Lounette Templeton, school nurse, and Mrs. Dorothy Schmidt, secretary, with lunch money.

SUPERINTENDENT
FRED THOMPSON

Seeing to the well-being of his students, the Superintendent of Schools surveys with pleasure the grounds for a new agriculture building.

PRINCIPAL
W.C. WESTERFELDT

Smiling behind his familiar desk, the principal cheerfully fills out a notice to the teachers for an efficient office girl, Lois Gellermann.

Curtis Klett and Robert Weed take part in Old English Ballad.

Mavnett Cox and Maren Westerfeldt become Spanish Dancers on Campus Caper program.

Members of the Junior Class display their many talents on Halloween night as they take part in the Campus Capers given by the clubs of FHS.

Senior Class Favorites

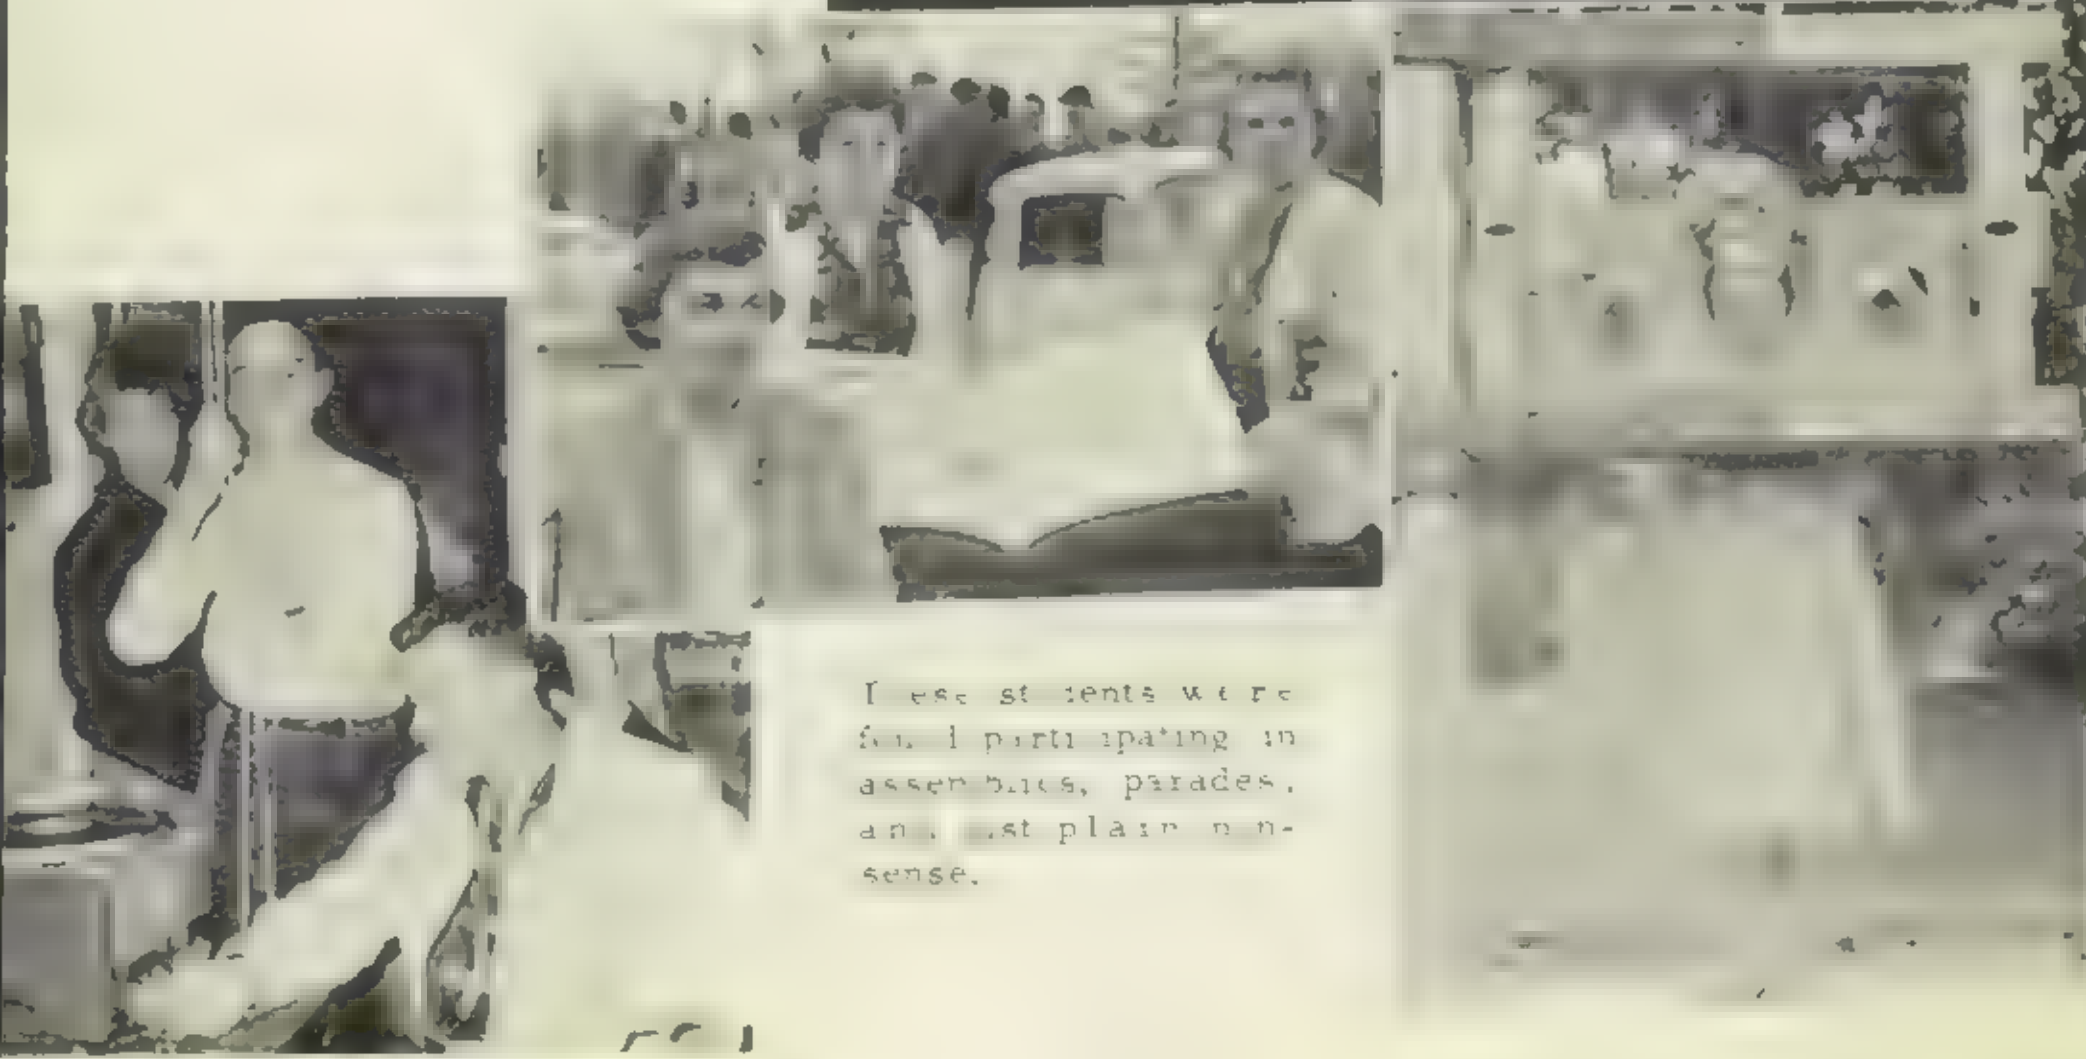

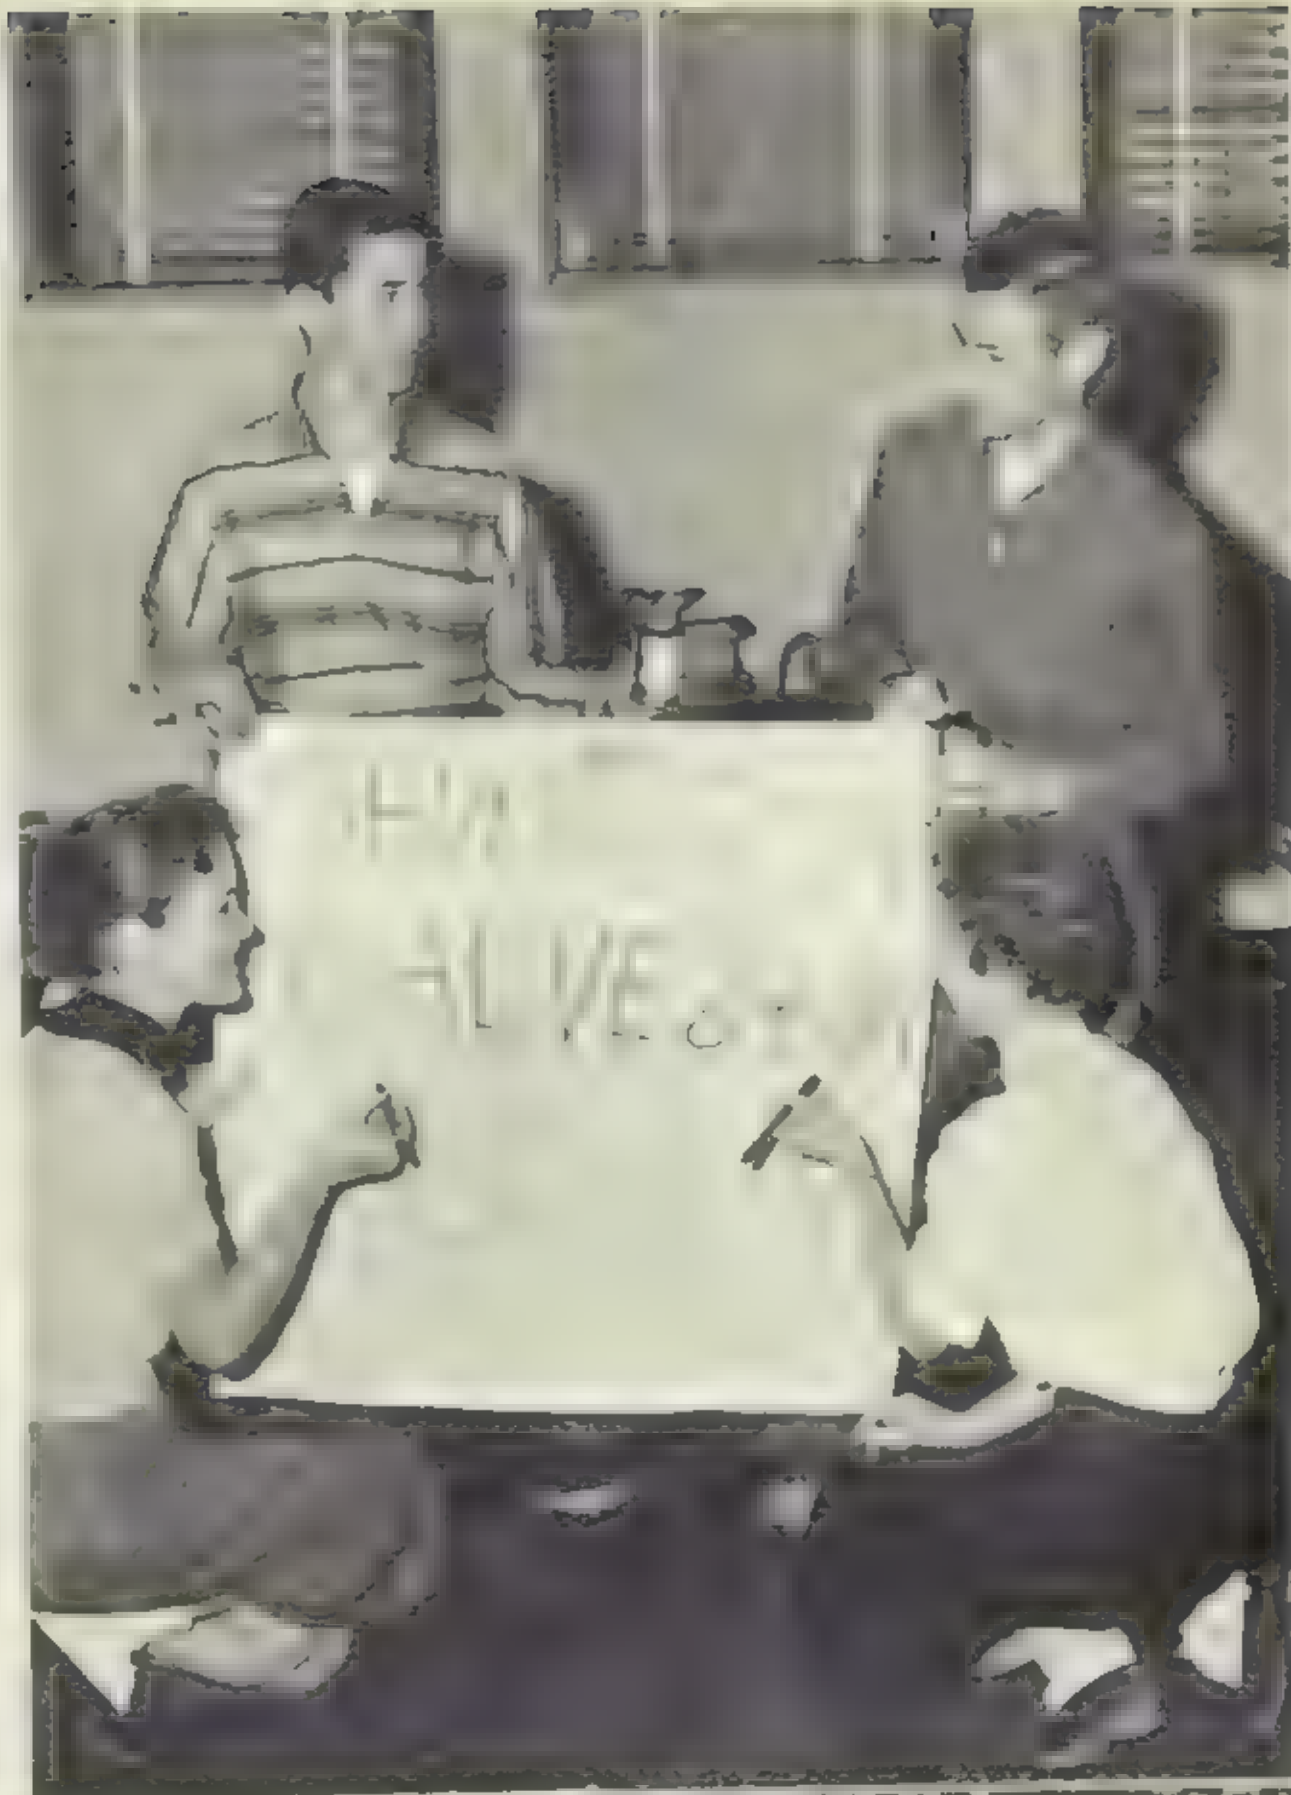

Virginia Wimmerich and Alfredo Lopez radiate a warm sense of humor which is reflected in the friendly glow of the fire.

Senior Class

Senior class officers take time out from their busy schedule to complete poster for senior trip bus. STANDING: Samuel Baethge, president; Barry McHalek, vice-president. KNEELING: Julia Mazinke, treasurer; Barbara Kott, secretary.

The proud senior class spends its time planning for the future and attending the many functions at FHS. Under the sponsorship of Miss Quillian, Mrs. Gold, Mr. Templeton, and Miss Mueller, the class planned its long-awaited Senior trip.

These students were found participating in assemblies, parades, and just plain nonsense.

Junior - Senior Prom

Making the 1954 Junior-Senior Prom one of the best, the chairman of the committee worked faithfully. His associates as chairman were Delia Dammann, Maynard Cox, Gloria Klein, Elizabeth Buckman, Bernice Hoyt, Kay Evers, and Charles Haas.

Patsy Danz reads the stars to foretell the future of the Seniors.

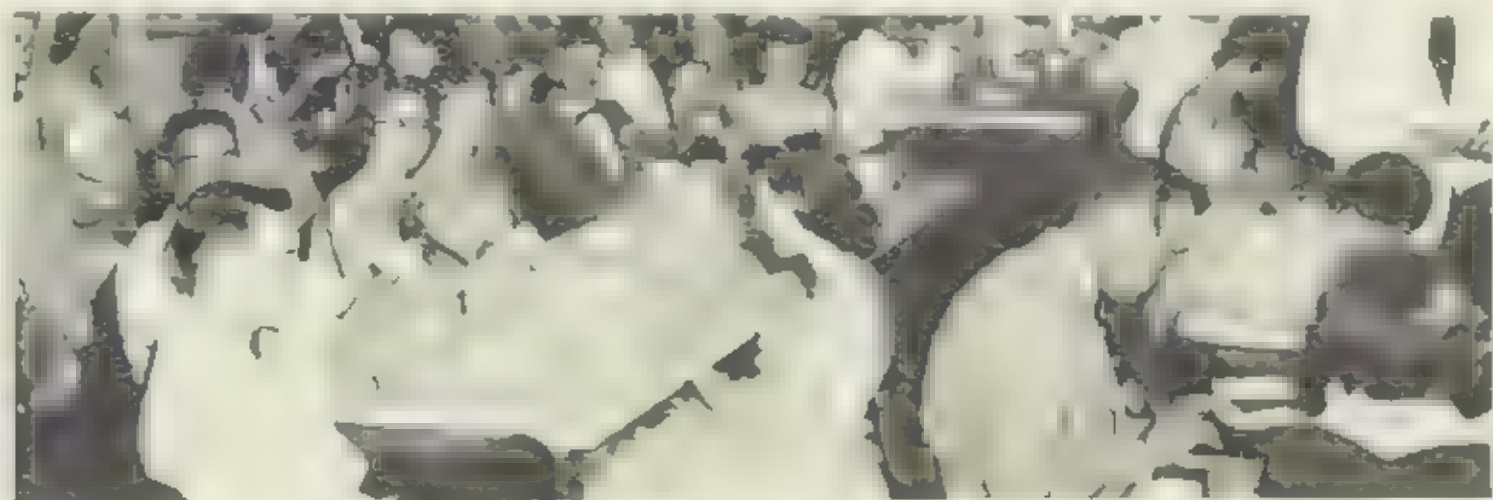

Carrying out the theme, Tyra Ann Cox and Janie Evers tap dance to the melody of 'Cherry Pink and Apple Blossom White.'

Adding color and beauty to the Junior-Senior Prom were the Waiters and Waitresses of the Sophomore Class who sang "Sail Along Silver Moon".

Helping to make the Prom a success were the faculty members and roommothers of the Junior Class. They are LEFT TO RIGHT Mr. and Mrs. Haas, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, Miss Gold, Mrs. Everett, Mrs. Davidson and Mrs. Goodin.

The highlight of the evening was signing autographs which enabled the students to remember their happy time at the 1958 Junior-Senior Prom.
